

Coin capsules with active anti-tarnish protection

ULTRA Intercept & QUADRUM Intercept

INTERCEPT® technology for collectors

... means collecting with active protection against your coins getting tarnished!

Exhaust fumes and moisture result in coins becoming corroded

Danger is in the air ...

Corrosion is a numismatist's worst nightmare. Even if your collection is well cared for and carefully stored, external influences can still damage the raw material of your valuable coins. This is because the air contains several substances which react with metals, leading to corrosion. Nitrous gases are one example, in addition to ozone and other corrosive gases, such as hydrogen sulphides, ammonia, carbonyl sulphide and chlorine compounds.

Problems with traditional methods of protecting coins

There are already several ways for collectors to protect their coins:

As regards regular cleaning, it is important to remember that any contact with the precious surface of the coin will wear it. So, less is more.

This is also true for sealing coins with varnish, wax or oil. The inestimable risks involved in these processes mean they do more harm than good.

The tried-and-tested coin capsule protects from mechanical damage and the acids found on human skin, but it cannot offer permanent protection from corrosive gases.

Technology tried-and-tested in industry

INTERCEPT® technology has been used in IT and heavy industry for more than 30 years and provides reliable protection for highly sensitive platinum, electronic components and car and aeroplane parts during storage and transit, as well as for packaging whole industrial machines. Even museums and archives use this process: the Guggenheim Museum, the US National Archive and the and The Royal Mint (UK) use it to protect coins, sculptures and other works of art.

Ideal for packaging, transport and storage of easily corroded metals

Patented protection

The process has been proven effective in countless trials and lab tests according to DIN, EN, ISO and ASTM standards. The protection is so effective that even moisture penetration is rid of corrosive elements. The process was even recognised for its eco-friendliness by the German Federal Institute for Occupational Safety and Health. All INTERCEPT® products are non-toxic and completely recyclable.

INTERCEPT® is used in lots of industries, such as aerospace, defence, automotive, electronics, machine engineering, mining and oil and gas extraction.

INTERCEPT® coin capsules actively help to prevent the tarnishing of coins

Tarnished coins are a thing of the past!

This industry-approved and tried-and-tested process means you will no longer need to clean or preserve coins using conventional methods. A special foam insert was developed for this purpose for our round and square INTERCEPT® coin capsules. The insert has been finished in a way to neutralise harmful atmospheric substances inside the capsule, so that your coins are stored in a non-corrosive microclimate.
